

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Introduction (Józefa Brągiel, Beata Górnicka) | 9 |
| Part I. Selected aspects of contemporary parenting | |
| Chapter 1. The demographic face of family (Józefa Brągiel) | 17 |
| Chapter 2. “Overworked and overcaring”. Parents and their functioning in the civilization of acceleration (Katarzyna Segiet). | 31 |
| Chapter 3. Discursive construing of a reflective mother – an example of the case analysis (Marta Wiatr) | 43 |
| Chapter 4. Alternative forms of marriage and family (Iwona Dąbrowska-Jabłońska) | 53 |
| Chapter 5. “A birch-rod drives reason into the head.”? – parents’ attitudes towards corporal punishment (Ewa Jarosz). | 63 |
| Part II. Parenting in the perception of parents and children | |
| Chapter 6. Family and parents in the perception of wards at rehabilitation institutions (Irena Mudrecka) | 81 |
| Chapter 7. Parents in the perception of children – about the needs of children and problems of contemporary parenting (Zofia Frączek). | 99 |
| Chapter 8. “Fatherhood engaged” – a new face of fatherhood of the 21 st century (Patrycja Kaszubska-Dziergas). | 113 |
| Chapter 9. Parents’ responsibility. Relationships – barriers – values (Krzysztof Martyniak) | 125 |
| Summaries | 137 |
| Information on the authors | 141 |